Reliable, organised and customer-focused Brunel University London student (MSc Artificial Intelligence) who enjoys a high-energy, fast-paced environment and likes staying busy and active. I have customer-facing experience in busy settings, stay calm under pressure and adapt quickly when priorities change. Friendly and respectful in a team, with the right mindset to learn and improve every day, I would love to join Inditex as a Sales Assistant and help deliver a smooth, fast and friendly store experience.

WHY I'M A GREAT FIT

- Naturally customer-focused and genuinely enjoy helping people
- Enjoy a high-energy environment and happy staying busy and active across the shopfloor, stockroom, deliveries and tills
- Reliable, organised and good at managing my time
- Stay calm under pressure and adapt quickly when priorities change
- Work well in a team and communicate with respect and positivity
- Ambitious and keen to learn, improve and grow my career in retail
